

DISTRICT SUNDAY SCHOOL BODY NOW IN NINETEENTH YEAR

W. W. Millan Again Named President Of The Association.

Under most auspicious circumstances, the District Sunday School Association today enters its nineteenth year, following the closing of the annual convention last night at the New York Avenue Presbyterian Church.

W. W. Millan again heads the association as president, being re-elected last night, as exclusively predicted yesterday in The Times. P. H. Bristow was elected first vice president, to succeed H. B. F. Macfarland, who retired, and former Secretary H. L. Buell is promoted to the second vice presidency. T. Clinton Jones succeeds Mr. Buell as secretary, and J. H. Lichner is given another term as treasurer. The executive committee for the ensuing year comprises L. D. Alden, E. Alvord, C. A. Baker, J. S. Barker, the Rev. C. H. Butler, S. M. Croft, J. E. Dawson, J. E. Epper, R. A. Ford, Percy R. Foster, T. H. Gaudin, N. M. Little, the Rev. Dr. D. C. MacLeod, J. A. MacElwain, J. W. Reiser, H. M. Shook, M. Watson, R. C. Daniels, and the Rev. S. R. Swift.

Motion Pictures Discussed.
Utility of illustrated Sunday school lessons, employing motion pictures and stereoscopic views, was asserted at the closing session of the convention last night by Dr. E. Richmond, of Philadelphia. He said such methods bring a lecture more vividly before children, and are not irrelevant.

Attitudes Essential to Sunday School Success was the sermon theme at the concluding session of the Rev. Joseph T. Watts, of Richmond, who declared all children should join a church when they are old enough to understand the Bible. He advocated resumption of the old-fashioned custom of having regular religious services—a family altar—in the home.

Benediction By Mr. Wilkey.

The Rev. H. L. Hout presided at the devotional services, the benediction being given by the Rev. Earl Wilkey. Music under the direction of George A. Frevert, with Miss Ethel Loefer as organist, was given by the octette of the Mt. Pleasant Congregational Church.

Resolutions were passed by the Association last night endorsing the campaign for universal peace and the temperance movement.

The Sunday school association enters its nineteenth year with 107 Sunday schools of the District enrolled as members, representing more than 50,000 pupils.

Bay Oysters Are Poor, Say Schooner Captains

According to captains of oyster schooners from down the river points, the quality of oysters opened to dredging in the Chesapeake bay, the first of the month, is poor. None of the new crop from bay points is on the Washington markets, and according to dealers few will be sent here, most of them going to large canning points, where they will be steamed.

It was said at the wharf markets today, that the oysters on the east shore of Chesapeake bay were poor and small, and that those on the west shore were little better. This will have the effect of keeping the wholesale price on Potomac river stock at a higher level than would prevail if the Chesapeake bay oysters were received here.

With the exception of catfish, all varieties of fish were scarce and high in price at the wharf markets. Catfish are abundant, selling at 4 cents a pound, wholesale. Halibut, trout, salmon, and sea bass are bringing about the same figures as last week, which are higher than they have been since the summer. Catches of fish have been light for several weeks on the coast fisheries, and the supply sent here has been small, so long that the local supply is running low.

Mgr. Mackin Officiates At Mrs. McNeir's Rites

Mgr. James F. Mackin, of St. Paul's Catholic Church, officiated at the funeral services this morning at 10 o'clock over the body of Mrs. George A. R. McNeir, seventy-one years old, and a native of Washington, who died of apoplexy at her home, 1323 Irving street northwest, on Monday.

For many years Mrs. McNeir has been a member of the St. Paul's church. She is survived by her husband, who is a Government employee, by a son, C. S. McNeir, an attorney of Washington, and a daughter, Mrs. J. Edgar Smith, whose husband is an attorney for the Interstate Commerce Commission.

LAWYERS' QUARREL HALTS LABOR TRIAL

Alleged Insanity Of Would-Be Juror Ties Up Hearing. Defense Anxious To Have Los Angeles Realty Dealer In Box, But State Strongly Objects.

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 2.—In the hope of qualifying Talesman Lorenzo Romans, challenged by the State, because it is alleged he is insane, the defense in the McNamara case today produced witnesses who declared the juror was not only perfectly sane, but one of the shrewdest real estate dealers in the city.

The defense hoped to impress Judge Bordwell and get him to set aside the State's challenge, thus compelling District Attorney Fredericks to waste a peremptory challenge.

The defense argued that Romans believed that the fund appropriated by the State for use in investigating the Times explosion was a corruption fund, and his prejudice against William Mulholland, one of the State's expert witnesses,

Pianist And Singer To Entertain Blind

New Murder Mystery Faces Chicago Police

CHICAGO, Nov. 2.—One of the most important murder problems the police have had to deal with in a long time developed here today, when an intruder walked into the boarding house of John Quinn, six-foot, a moleman, and calmly shot Quinn through the heart as he lay sleeping. Mrs. Quinn was so prostrated she could not remember what the man looked like. He got away unpursued.

Health and Beauty Hints BY MRS. MAE MARTIN.

Maudie S.: A "made" complexion never looks run of nature, and unless you use cosmetics the skin will grow rough and unsightly. Try spumax lotion and I'm sure you will be delighted with results. Stir two teaspoonfuls of spumax in one-half pint hot water, then add four ounces spumax. When cool apply sparingly to face, neck and arms and rub lightly until it dries. The spumax lotion is soothing and healing, cleanses the skin of all impurities and banishes the oily, yellow look. Use this lotion and you will have a complexion rivaling any made by artificial means.

Mrs. Geo.: It is dangerous to disregard the laws of nature, and unless you employ a system-logic you may have a run of sickness. I would suggest making up the following old-time blood cleanser and taking a tablespoonful three times daily: In a half-pint alcohol dissolve one-half cupful sugar, then add one ounce castile soap and one ounce of salt. This tonic will expel impurities from the body, repair waste tissues and restore lost appetite as well as give you renewed strength and vigor.

M. O.: The only quick and sure way to remove dandruff from the scalp is to apply a delicate paste. Let it remain two or three minutes, then rub off with the skin and the hairs are gone. Only in rare instances is it necessary to use the second application. Dandruff costs a dollar for an ordinary once-a-week, but it is worth it to rid the skin of superfluous hair.

Mrs. O.: Glasses at your age, I presume, are quite necessary. However, if you will get an ounce of crystal and dissolve it in a pint of water and put two or three drops in each eye every day, you can overcome the soreness and redness. Keep up this simple treatment and before long your eyes will take on a youthful sparkle and brilliancy and you will no longer be troubled with weak eyes.

Hope: Don't wreck your nervous system by dining on half-follies, ordinary parroties, found in all drug stores, you can reduce your weight to where you want it and not suffer any inconvenience or ill after-effects. Four ounces parroties should be dissolved in a pint-and-a-half hot water, and when it cools, take a tablespoonful before each meal. This parroties treatment you will find reduces weight rapidly without leaving the skin flabby or wrinkled or marring the form's symmetrical lines.

Miss X.: No, canthox will not injure the most sensitive scalp. It contains no "free" nitral and makes a white, thick layer that soothes and heals a tender scalp, removing every bit of dust, dandruff and excess oil, and promotes a healthy condition. After a canthox shampoo, the hair dries quickly, evenly, and is soft and glossy. Any druggist can supply canthox in an original package and a teaspoonful dissolved in hot water is ample for a first-class shampoo.

Rose B.: (1) I never advise using powders or cosmetics because of their tendency to clog the skin's pores and cause roughness of the skin, pimples, blackheads and other complexion upsets. (2) You will find a plain almond cream-jelly splendid for reducing large pores and cleansing the skin of impurities as well as imparting a delightful softness and freshness to the complexion. To make this greaseless cream-jelly, stir two teaspoonfuls glycerine in one-half pint cold water, then add one ounce alcohol. Let stand several hours before using, then apply generously and massage in well. No matter how unlovely the complexion may be, this simple almond cream-jelly will make it radiantly beautiful.

Anxious: Baldness among women is nothing short of a calamity, and really suggests carelessness or indifference in care of the hair. You can restore the natural color and silkiness to your hair and make it grow thick and beautiful, if you make and use this simple tonic: Into a half-pint alcohol pour a half-pint water, then add one ounce quinine. Frequently massage a little of this at a time into the scalp overcom-dandruff and itches, and so invigorates the hair-follicles that an abundance of fine glossy hair results. Read Mrs. Martin's book, "Beauty."

Persia To Be Quiet During Winter Season

The American minister to Persia has advised the State Department that the winter season having set in all military operations of the Persian rebels as well as the imperial forces will have discontinued for several months. This is necessary on account of the severity of the climate.

The diplomat, therefore, thinks that Persia will have a period of quiet extending certainly until spring.

Anarchists' Plans Checked In Italy.

ROME, Nov. 2.—The anarchist demonstration planned for November 11 in memory of the Haymarket riots in 1886, was prohibited here today.

Always unfriendly to such affairs, the government is particularly averse to anarchistic gatherings just now on account of the war in Tripoli.

T. G. Diggs Addresses Sunday School Body

Thomas G. Diggs, of Richmond, State secretary of Sunday school work in Virginia, was the principal speaker at the meeting of the Alexandria County Sunday School Association in the Baptist Church at Clarendon, Va. President G. W. Phillips presided. Miss Sue V. Hens, a teacher in the Columbia Pike School, sang a solo, accompanied by Mrs. W. T. Hodges, wife of the county superintendent of schools. Mr. Martin, of New York, also contributed a vocal number.
